

The Daily Bugle

<http://bergnovinaianewsnetwork.yolasite.com>

Your Most Trusted International News Source

December 31, 2010

A Crusade... or Downright Crazy?

Our anonymous informant told the Daily Bugle that despite Mr. Humbletree not being seen in public in over a decade, he is still very involved in world affairs and did give Juggalonus the nuke.

UNDERIUM—Just days ago, Underium, a Nuclear Arms Assembly (NAA) member, had nuclear arms detonated over their nation that were launched from a communist and facist hating nation, Juggalonus. It is believed that although these nuclear missiles were launched from this nation that the missiles were provided from an outside source—Trillionare George Humble Tree.

Mr. Humblerec has been known to have an avid hatred for communists and facists... only recently has this detestment of these forms of government turn into action. Despite his home nation,

Condemning his actions, Mr. Humbltree can essentially do whatever he wants because he has the monetary ability to do so.

However, certain nations are enraged with Mr. Humbletree's call to destroy facist and communist nations. Rustonia, for one, has declared Mr. Humbletree an enemy of the state, ordering his execution, and has also informed Juggalonus of Rustonia's action should a launch occur (MAD).

It is clear that however this situation ends, it won't be good. Two nations have confirmed nuclear missile attacks from Humbletree—Offshore Bankers and Underium—and many more could be potentially nuked if this conflict escalates. Unfortunately, the Nuclear Arms Assembly has failed to make proper legislation to ensure that people such as Mr. Humbletree cannot purchase nuclear arms that can then be sold to rogue nations and then detonated. The NAA, which promotes a general stance on world peace and anti-nuclear proliferation, has raised the threat level of the assembly and readied the nuclear arsenal pending a request for a vote to use the nuclear arsenal from the representatives from Rustonia. However, the NAA is working on critical and new legislation that would effectively end the sale of nuclear arms to rogue nations (at least from NAA members).

Mr. Ruttenberg, the head chair of the NAA, has now issued a statement concerning the actions of Mr. Humble tree. "The Nuclear Arms Assembly (NAA) condemns the actions of Mr. Humbletree against communist and facist states. While we can understand that in many nations these ideaologies are viewed poorly, we cannot understand why anyone would resort to nuclear proliferation to send a statement concerning their own ideaology. The NAA, which is open to all ideologies that promote a general sense of peace cannot believe that a nation such as Illegal legs would let such a violent and dilusional man, such as Mr. Humbletree, out of the government's reach for over a decade. That is inconceivable." By: Editor in Chief Joshua Fuller

Hourk, Bergnovinaia—Despite several allies of the Bergnovinaian nation being nuked or threatened by Mr. Humbletree and his cohorts, Prime Minister Keenan Roberts has urged Bergnovinianan parliament to remain neutral on this issue at this time. He said that, "We really shouldn't be getting ourseleves into a potentially dangerous issue after the NAA was reformed under Mr. Ruttenberg. It would be hypocritical for our nation to attack another nation, even if we were attacked, so early into the NAA's reformation. However, skeptics believe that Begnovinaia's neutrality can only be a bad thing... that it'll be to late to stirke once we've been attacked.

Jerusalem, Rustonia-- Supreme Chairman Vladislav Radulescu has issued a series of statements concerning the threats upon his nation by Mr. Humbletree and his affiliates. It is clear that Rustonia is taking all of these threats seriously and is prepared to take any course of action necessary.

NAA Chambers—Head Chair, Charles Ruttenberg, was disgraced when he made false accustations agaisnt the former Underium representatives this week concerning their nation's nuclear actions. However, Ruttenberg was shocked to see such an overwhelming hatred of the Underium delegation.